West Phila. Dec. 18. 1885.

Hon Daniel M. Fox,
Supt U. S. Mint;

My Dear Sir: Having been honored by Frank Bell Esq. City Treasurer-Elect with an appointment under him, I am obliged to respectfully tender you my resignation as a cutter in the Mint to take effect on the 28th inst.; and in doing so permit me to thank you for the courtesy and confidence extended to me during the six months of our official relations, which I trust have been as satisfactory to you as they have been pleasant to me

In whatever position I have been placed it has always been my aim to merit the approbation of my official superiors, and in severing my connection with your administration of the Mint, I sincerely hope I shall carry with me your endorsement of my official conduct.

With very great respect, I am Sir

Yours Very truly
Archie L. Frazier

Hon. Daniel M. Fox,
Supt. U.S. Mint;

My Dear Sir:

Having been honored by Frank Bell Esq., City Treasurer-Elect, with an appointment under him, I am obliged to respectfully tender you my resignation as a cutter in the Mint to take effect on the 26th inst., and in doing so permit me to thank you for the courtesy and confidence extended to me during the six months of our official relations, which I trust have been as satisfactory to you as they have been pleasant to me.

In whatever position I have been placed it has always been my aim to merit the approbation of my official superiors, and in severing my connection with your administration of the Mint, I sincerely hope I shall carry with me your endorsement of my official conduct.

With very great respect, I am Sir

Yours Very truly
Archie L. Frazier
